- After that is filled in hit the “Next” button

The screenshot shows a mobile app interface for signing up. At the top, the status bar displays 'App Store', signal strength, Wi-Fi, '9:33 AM', and '26%' battery. The app's title bar says 'Sign up'. Below it is a white card titled 'Your information' containing four input fields: 'First name *', 'Last name *', 'Email address *', and 'Your Mobile Number *'. Each field has a corresponding icon (person, person, envelope, and phone). Red arrows originate from a single point on the left and point to each of these four fields. A long red arrow points from the 'Next' button at the bottom right of the screen back to the text 'After that is filled in hit the “Next” button' in the list on the left. The 'Next' button is circled in red. At the bottom left is a 'Back' button, and in the center are three dots.

4. Fill in your address

- Check off box once the address has been filled in completely

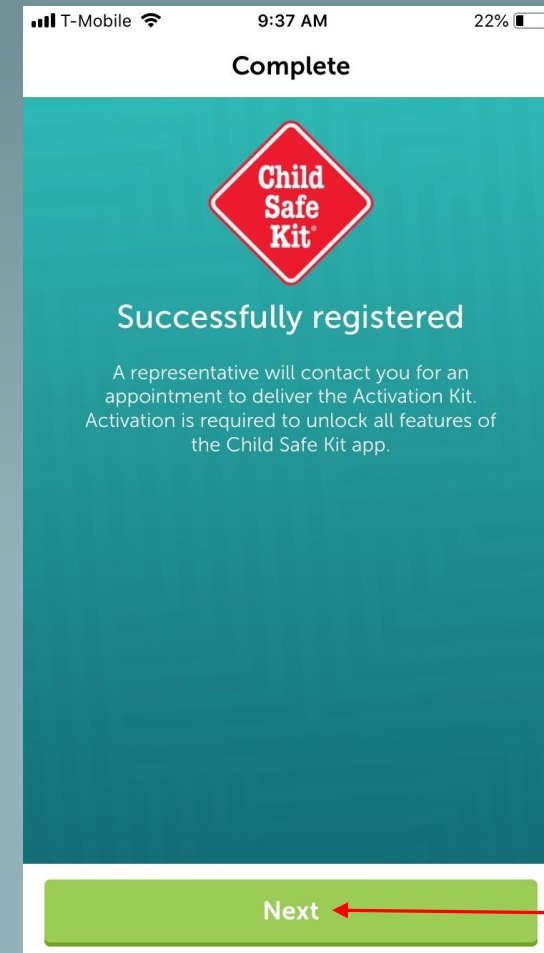

The image shows a mobile app interface for signing up. At the top, the status bar shows 'T-Mobile', signal strength, Wi-Fi, time '9:35 AM', and battery '23%'. Below this is a white header with the text 'Sign up'. The main content area has a teal border and a white background. It starts with a title 'Your Address' in a light gray bar. Below this are four text input fields, each with a red underline and an asterisk: 'Street *', 'City *', 'State *', and 'Zip Code *'. At the bottom of the form is a checkbox followed by the text 'I have read and accept the terms and conditions and privacy policy associated with this application.' Below the form is a dark teal footer bar with a 'Back' button on the left, three dots in the center, and a 'Next' button on the right. The 'Next' button is circled in red.
